NARI MATSUURA, piano

Pianist, Nari Matsuura, is the Grand Winner ex-aequo of the 1991 International Stepping Stone of the Canadian Music Competitions, and also won the prize for the Best Interpretation of the Canadian Commissioned Piece by Alexina Louie.

As part of her prize, Ms. Matsuura will be giving recitals during the 1991/92 season at the Canadian Embassy in Washington, at the Montreal International Piano Festival, at the University of Toronto and in the Debut Series in Montreal. Her prize also includes a fellowship to participate in the Banff Centre for the Arts residency programme during the 1992 summer and a tour of Youth and Music Canada centres during the 92/93 season.

Ms. Matsuura is originally from Ottawa and graduated from the Juilliard School with a Bachelor's Degree in 1991. She has performed with the National Arts Centre and Juilliard Pre-College orchestras and is active as a soloist and a chamber musician. She has attended the Banff Centre for the Arts numerous times, as well as the Aspen and Bowdoin Music Festivals.

Ms. Matsuura received a Gluck fellowship from the Juilliard School, which provides engagements to perform in hospitals, hospices and senior citizen homes. She has been awarded a Chalmers Grant from the Ontario Arts Council to support her studies at Juilliard studying with Martin Canin where she will graduate from the Accelerated Master's programme this year.
